GCD	6/21/2013	9:00 AM	10:00 AM	Wesleyan Ecclesiology and the Bi-vocational Pastor	Jeffrey Barker	This workshop will describe the current climate of bi-vocational pastors, articulate current assumptions about the pastor's job, and offer a Wesleyan ecclesiological framework for reconsidering the relationship and roles of pastor and congregation.	241
GCD	6/21/2013	9:00 AM	10:00 AM	Why Worship and Does It Matter What We Do?	Brent Peterson, Brannon Hancock, Heather Daugherty, Jim Puckett	This workshop will explore why we worship communally and the reasoning behind certain elements (singing, prayer, tithes, scripture reading, proclamation, etc). Ideas will be offered for equipping local congregations to find their unique worship rhythm.	237
GCD	6/21/2013	10:30 AM	11:30 AM	Adolescence: Starting Earlier and Lasting Longer	Mike Kipp	This workshop discusses the changing nature of the period of adolescence. What was once a 18-month transition is now lasting 15 years! Why the change? Characteristics of early, middle, and late adolescence will be discussed.	234
GCD	6/21/2013	10:30 AM	11:30 AM	The Authority of the Bible in the Church	Thomas Noble	This workshop discusses the historical survey in the church, evangelical view today, and the Wesleyan view.	235

GCD	6/21/2013	10:30 AM	11:30 AM	Congregational Participation in the Mission of God	David Wesley	This workshop will unfold the transformation of a church from seeing mission as something done by specialists who represent them to active, whole-hearted, and integrated participation in the very mission of God. Practical illustrations will be included.	241
GCD	6/21/2013	10:30 AM	11:30 AM	God's Call to Christian Ministry	Doug Samples	This workshop answers four vital questions that teens have about responding to a call to ministry: How do I know if I'm called? How do I hear a call to ministry? How do I know where my call is? How do I pray about my call?	240
GCD	6/21/2013	10:30 AM	11:30 AM	Living and Leading with Your Strengths in Ministry	Jim Johnson, Norm Shoemaker	Workshop participants will be introduced to the resources of the Nazarene Strengths Institute and learn how to identify, understand, develop, and apply their God-given strengths to maximize ministry, empower leadership, and increase mission engagement.	232
GCD	6/21/2013	10:30 AM	11:30 AM	Spiritual Development on Nazarene Campuses	University Nazarene Chaplains	Chaplains from Nazarene campuses will share their philosophy of spiritual formation, chapel programming and discipleship, followed by a time of Q & A, and healthy dialogue.	237
SATURDAY, JUNE 22

FRIDAY, JUNE 21
SDMI	6/21/2013	2:00 PM	3:00 PM	Boomer to X'er	Greg Mason	We will present strategies for developing discipleship ministries that impact and develop the faith community across all generations. We will particularly address how families can benefit from a local church discipleship strategy.	234
SDMI	6/21/2013	2:00 PM	3:00 PM	Coveting a Generation	Carol Waller	Ten years ago, Hermitage Church took seriously the decadal call to covet a generation for Christ. In this workshop, they will share their strategy, structures, challenges, and risks taken to be more intentional in reaching the next generation. They will share with you their journey in going from a church with a youth group to a youth group with a church.	237

SDMI	6/21/2013	2:00 PM	3:00 PM	If Jesus Were a Parent	Hal Perkins	After having given six years in studying Jesus' process of making disciples and implementing the findings into local church ministry - and becoming the parents of triplets plus one – the Perkinses determined to disciple their children as they perceived Jesus had disciplined His twelve. Their book and this workshop describe strategies for intentionally discipling children to know and follow Jesus.	231
SDMI	6/21/2013	2:00 PM	3:00 PM	How to Make Intentional Investments in the Lives of Others	Paul Tarrant	Discipleship is so much more than a 12-letter word. It's the intentional investing of time in others who are ready to learn the important values, practices, and disciplines for their spiritual formation. How can we be more effective in fulfilling Matthew 28:19-20? Do Jesus' discipling methods still work today?	239
SDMI	6/21/2013	2:00 PM	3:00 PM	Intergenerational Ministry Opportunities	Brian Helstrom	JESUS Film Harvest Partners gives you ways to involve families and mixed age groups in doing the Great Great Commission and reaching the lost.	235
SDMI	6/21/2013	2:00 PM	3:00 PM	The Master's Plan Discipleship Model	Craig Rench	How did the largest Nazarene Church in the world grow from 31 people to more than 16,000 in 15 years? This workshop will give a basic introduction to the dynamic model of disciple making that is growing throughout the nations!	240
SDMI	6/21/2013	2:00 PM	3:00 PM	On the Front Line of Kid's Ministry	Cheryl Sherwood	While ministering to children, we learn as much as we teach. Understanding these life lessons and programming ministry to match can be challenging. Come join in this discussion of lessons learned over 10 years of front-line ministry. Leave with a few fresh ideas, a new perspective, and some new friends.	242
SDMI	6/21/2013	2:00 PM	3:00 PM	One to One: Every Disciple Can Do This	Karen Gunstream	Speaking to the one-to-one discipling relationship, we will envision God using what is in place in your life now, probe the various levels of relationship development, watch video testimonials from people in discipling relationships now, and see a demonstration of an intentional conversation which disciplines another person.	233
SDMI	6/21/2013	2:00 PM	3:00 PM	Scripture as Spiritual Formation	Mark Maddix, Richard Thompson	The primary role of Scripture is to help believers grow in their relationship with God. This workshop focuses on principles and practices of reading Scripture as formation instead of information.	232
SDMI	6/21/2013	2:00 PM	3:00 PM	Small Groups as Ministry Tools	Deb Heller	Use your small groups to expand and enrich your current ministries. Learn how to use the relationships developed in groups to develop a teamwork mentality within your church. Small groups can be the hands and feet of the church body.	241

SDMI	6/21/2013	2:00 PM	3:00 PM	Sunday School Stories	Ray Neu	Learn how to tell Bible stories in a way that is easy for listeners to receive, retain, and retell. This hands-on workshop will show you how to create a high level of participation, engaging your listeners while turning them into participants who then are empowered to become Bible story tellers themselves.	236
SDMI	6/21/2013	2:00 PM	3:00 PM	Transitions Within Small Groups	James Hicks	After teaching discipleship and small groups for over 30 years in both a church and non-church environment, Dr. Hicks will cover the "Stages of Small Groups" and "Ministering to Different People in Groups." Both are applicable for individual mentoring, starting groups, and transitioning to groups.	243
SDMI	6/21/2013	3:30 PM	4:30 PM	Be an Online Disciple Maker	J. D. Sailors	Over 50,000 people a day are coming to Christ over the internet. If you have an email address you can safely help new converts from all over the world looking for a mature Christian to come alongside them and encourage them in the ways of the Lord.	236
SDMI	6/21/2013	3:30 PM	4:30 PM	Building Bridges to Postmoderns	M.K.R.	This workshop invites clergy and laity to better understand the realities of the postmodern generation. The session will provide direction on how to communicate the message of Christ in a postmodern context.	241
SDMI	6/21/2013	3:30 PM	4:30 PM	How to Change the World by Making Disciples like Jesus Did	Scott Marshal, Greg Arthur	Jesus is only counting one thing: making disciples. So, how are we doing at that? Is our approach to making disciples something an ordinary, non-seminary-trained person can do and pass on in their everyday life? We'll walk through a reproducible, sustainable (non-programmatic) model that imitates the method, practice, and heart of Jesus and allows the local church to get on with bearing the fruit Jesus is looking for.	232
SDMI	6/21/2013	3:30 PM	4:30 PM	Is Jesus the Only Way to God?	David Busic	In a world of pluralism and many religious claims and faiths, is Jesus the only way to God? How do we teach, preach, and live this message? This workshop will explore the current cultural context and offer suggestions for moving forward.	235

SDMI	6/21/2013	3:30 PM	4:30 PM	May Our Children...	Tim Kellerman	We need to pray! It sounds so trite and obvious. However, triteness can cause us to overlook the importance of corporate prayer. I certainly am guilty. This workshop is the story of how God changed all of that in my life and in the church I am privileged to pastor.	243
SDMI	6/21/2013	3:30 PM	4:30 PM	Senior Adults: Gifts That CAN Keep On Giving!	Marshall Duke	Senior adults offer a reservoir of accumulated experience and talent. What are the benefits of maintaining their involvement in your congregation, and what are examples of how they are actively and creatively affecting ministry?	233
SDMI	6/21/2013	3:30 PM	4:30 PM	Sex and the Soul (Young Adult Ministry)	Bryce Fox	This workshop will examine the world of young adults as they attempt to navigate life in an X-rated culture. It will look historically and sociologically at the challenges and the role of theology and the church in responding to the deeper needs and questions of this generation.	234
SDMI	6/21/2013	3:30 PM	4:30 PM	Single Parents Within the Church: What are Their Needs and How Can the Church Help?	Tammy Daughtry	Thousands of single parents and their children are part of our congregations; some have been impacted by divorce and some by death. How can the church be a support system in their lives? What are their unique obstacles, and what can be done to overcome these obstacles? How can the church be a true extension to a single-parent family in a loving and Christlike way?	240
SDMI	6/21/2013	3:30 PM	4:30 PM	Sisterhood of the Unique Plan	Susan Carole	How can women discern God's unique plan for their lives? How can a local church develop a sisterhood aimed at discerning and living out God's plan? This workshop explores the biblical guidelines and contextual considerations that would help us answer these questions. Our conversation will be appealing for those who wish to develop meaningful and dynamic women's ministries across a broad range of contexts, professions, and age-groups.	239
SDMI	6/21/2013	3:30 PM	4:30 PM	Teaching and Reaching Youth	Bruce Oldham	Engaging teenagers in the truth of God's Word can be a daunting challenge considering the varying levels of interest and experience and the broad range of intellectual, social, and spiritual development levels that are present as they move through adolescence. This workshop will review fundamental educational theory and practice as it applies to teaching youth and will explore practical ideas and tips to making a connection to transform lives.	242

SDMI	6/21/2013	3:30 PM	4:30 PM	A Wesleyan Reading of Scripture	Carl Leth	These are challenging days for understanding and valuing Scripture. We often seem caught between extremes, looking for another way. Could a clearer Wesleyan reading of Scripture help us find a way forward? The short answer is yes!	231
SDMI	6/21/2013	3:30 PM	4:30 PM	Where's Your Chair?	John Edgar Caterson	This workshop will facilitate, inform, and catalyze new or renewed Scripture engagement practices among Church of the Nazarene ministry leaders. Through these efforts, we hope to inspire leaders to redirect personal and corporate resources toward revolutionary Bible engagement in order to produce personal, corporate, and church transformation that empowers world change for the glory of God.	237
SDMI	6/21/2013	3:30 PM	4:30 PM	Witnessing Without Fear	Chic Shaver	The two main reasons Christians in the U.S. and Canada don't witness more is fear of rejection and fear of not knowing what to say. This seminar will help you know: *How to tell when people are open to your witness *How to get close to unsaved people *How to approach people with confidence *Testimonies of new converts will be included	238

UCRO	6/20/2013	2:00 PM	3:00 PM	SHIFT: A Holy Core	Daron Brown	A recent comprehensive study of Vibrant Nazarene Churches determined that A Holy Core is an essential "First Thing" for an established church to experience renewal. The sanctification of the core group of leadership in each of the local churches was crucial for each church's health and growth moving forward. These pastors and their church leadership teams engaged in specific practices that put themselves in position to grow in holiness together. Learn how A Holy Core is a necessary element for a Vibrant Church. This workshop is based off the book SHIFT: How Nine Churches Experienced Vibrant Renewal by Daron Brown.	Sagamore 2
UCRO	6/20/2013	3:30 PM	4:30 PM	Bridging Faiths	Joe Knight	How can followers of Jesus share the unique hope found in Him with their neighbors who come from other religious backgrounds? By better understanding those religious backgrounds and the ideas of our neighbors, we can form bridges of friendship and communication that will allow sharing the love of Christ as a natural outgrowth of ongoing spiritual conversations. Learn and interact with those who are building bridges to their neighbors.	205
UCRO	6/20/2013	3:30 PM	4:30 PM	SHIFT: Single Cell to Multi-Cell	Daron Brown	A recent comprehensive study of Vibrant Nazarene Churches determined that one important "shift" was the movement from single-cell to multi-cell. In efforts to expand the infrastructure of the church, Sunday School classes and small groups needed to be addressed. While each of these churches went about this process in different ways, they reported on the significance of "expanding the base" of the church through small group ministries. Learn and interact with how Single-Cell and Multi-Cell is an important shift for every local church. This workshop is based on Daron Brown's SHIFT: How Nine Churches Experienced Vibrant Renewal .	Sagamore 2

In order to reach them we must think like a missionary. Nazarene Organic churches use a framework for making disciples that make disciples without spending large amounts of money. Learn from and interact with the Director and members of the Nazarene Organic Church Network.	205
UCRO	6/21/2013	2:00 PM	3:00 PM	SHIFT: Powered by Prayer	Junior Sorzano	A recent comprehensive study of Vibrant Nazarene Churches determined that prayer is the single greatest factor in the renewal of a local church. The research also revealed specific elements concerning prayer. It mattered how these churches prayed, when they prayed, and wha they prayed for. Come hear how prayer was the catalyst for Vibrant Church renewal in these churches. This workshop is based on Daron Brown's SHIFT: How Nine Churches Experienced Vibrant Renewal .	Sagamore 2
UCRO	6/21/2013	3:30 PM	4:30 PM	Strategies for a Smooth Project	Dean Morgan	Building projects are wonderful opportunities for churches to enhance their ability to make more Christlike disciples. Those same projects can be filled with potential landmines which if stepped on can derail or severally injure the project and church. Participate in a discussion led by a veteran church architect on how to strategize for a smooth project.	211

UCRO	6/21/2013	3:30 PM	4:30 PM	SHIFT: Inside to Out	Tony Miller	A recent comprehensive study of Vibrant Nazarene Churches determined that one important shift was the movement from Inside to Out. The focus of each of these churches needed to be turned from internal matters to external realities. Through personal evangelism, compassionate ministries, and missional efforts, each of these churches took their focus off of themselves and on those outside their local church setting. Come hear how Inside to Out is a necessary shift for every local church. This workshop is based on the book SHIFT: How Nine Churches Experienced Vibrant Renewal by Daron Brown.	Sagamore 2
