Cupid At It Yet; Summer Produces Record Crop of Student Marriages

Girls Take Advantage Of Leap Year

Dan Cupid will need a rest after his strenuous activities of the summer. He has been quite successful in promoting the matrimonial department of our fair institution. To date we have a list of the following summer weddings of students who attended N. N. C. last year.

John Cramer and Fern Weintz.
John Harris and Vernadean Spurbeck.

Wilbur Wheeler and Allene Askren.

Paul Harris and Lillian Nutt.
Hubert Herron and Olive Webb.

Paul Wordsworth and Marjorie Herron.

Delmar Cook and Ruth Herron.
Bob Lee and Ann Flynn.

Ray James and Marjorie Slover.
Melvin Wood and Betty Gould.

Jesse Embree and Ethel Gaerte.
Bob Kiel and Leora Reisch.

Lloyd Gebhart and Birdie Evans.

Roy Green and Ruth Harper.
Elmer Skaggs and Naomi Emerson.

Glenn Hopkins and Lois Franklin.

Jerry Johnson and Alice Schmidt.

Delmar Beukleman and Muriel Ward.

Elwin Allison and Rosalie Lancaster.

Jack Hawthorne and Fairy Emerson.

Carl Miller and Ada Haywood.
James Ranum and Muriel Bowman.

Ortin Kamenski and Irene Mitchell.

Elmer Bissett and Christle Pyrtle.

Russell Spear and Betty Anderson.

REV. GEORGE COULTER

Opening Convention Begins Tonight

The school year begins Tuesday evening with the opening convention with the Rev. George Coulter as the speaker. The convention lasts from Tuesday through Sunday.

Rev. Coulter was graduated by N. N. C. in 1933. He is now district superintendent of the Northern California district. Previously, he was pastor of Medford Church of the Nazarene.

KEN SULSTON

We're Ready to Go

By Ken SULSTON

"Well... all set for a big year?"

If all the well-wishers who have nonchalantly numbed me this summer with that stock question were stood side by side in a row, they'd form a line that would reach from here to there, and then some. But, bless 'em, they've unknowingly stirred my thoughts and imagination until I approach these opening days of the '48-'49 year with dreams of great things for the Associated Students of N. N. C.

Yes, this will be a big year... IF!

A big year IF every member of the ASB wants a big year badly enough to WORK for it.

It's impossible to arrive at another September registration without allowing our thoughts to wander back over the school year so recently ended. Varied are the impressions in the mind of each of us when we consider last year. For some, it stands now as a year of "unfinished business"... spiritually, scholastically, socially. Perhaps all we had planned wasn't accomplished. Many of our dreams fell somewhat short of realization. Could it possibly have been different had we sought "first things first?"

As Timothy was enjoined to seek from the scripture so may we seek from the experiences of the year past, doctrine, reproof, correction, instruction. And we may come to the close of THIS year with the stimulating consciousness that we've given it our best... or very best.

To those of you who are new in our midst, may this, your first year at N. N. C., be the richest, the fullest year you've known. And to our old friends returning again to the halls of N. N. C., "Welcome Home."

Men's Chorus To Take Spring Tour

This year there will be an a cappella choir and a men's chorus to make the annual spring tours instead of the two choirs as were sponsored last year. Prof. Raymond Knighton is to be director of the a cappella choir and the men's chorus will be directed by Prof. Robert Hughes.

ATTENTION

All those interested in joining the Crusader staff this year please contact Lloyd Gebhart or Hannah Schmidt by Friday, September 17. Please give your name, class and position on the staff desired. A tentative staff will be chosen the following Monday.

Assistant in Speech

Prof. M. A. Wilson, head of the speech department, has announced that Kenneth Sulston is to be student assistant in the speech department.

Ken is to give private lessons in radio speech. This course should be of special interest to preachers and teachers who may have to plan and produce radio programs.

Before the war Ken was very active in contest and last year won first place in the Southern Idaho speech tournament in extemporaneous speaking. He also has had several years of professional experience in various phases of radio work.

MR. AND MRS. R. T. HOLMES

Mrs. Holmes Becomes Dean of Morrison Hall

Mrs. R. T. Holmes is the new head resident of Morrison hall and the Rev. R. T. Holmes is employed as business office associate. The Holmes come to us from Albany, Ore., where they were pastors of the Church of the Nazarene. They have also served in pastorates in Oregon City, Ore., and Olympia, Wash.

New R. E. Course to Help Relig. Workers

A new course will be offered in religious education this year. Prof. James McGraw announced the new course for those who are in religious work works such as Sunday school teachers, preachers, Y. M. C. A. workers, scouting and other types of religious and Christian work.

This one-hour subject is classified as Rel. Ed. 151, Field Work Practicum and will be offered on Monday at 1:15 p. m. This course is offered to supervise students in their subjects and to give them credit for their work. Any student who receives a salary or any other type of remuneration above expenses is not eligible to receive credit for the course.

Campus Improvements Give N. N. C. Much Needed Face Lifting

DR. L. T. CORLETT

Welcome!

It is a pleasure to welcome all students to the campus of N. N. C. The familiar faces of former years bring joy to the administration in their return. The various members of the staff are happy to welcome the new students to all the privileges and benefits of the school.

N. N. C. has had a glorious history. Much progress has been made in the physical plant and equipment during the 35 years of the school's history, but the glory of the institution does not consist of the physical plant, but rather of the spirit that prompted the founders to establish here a Christian educational institution. The campus and buildings have been provided by money from people who believed intensely in an ideal. They sacrificed that they might carry out a vision that God gave and provided an institution where each one of you could get an education in a Christian atmosphere. So we invite you to look for the values that are larger than physical plants and yet rather intangible.

The greater majority of young people who have come to the campus during the past 35 years have found this ideal and enjoyed themselves and gone out to give useful service for the Kingdom of God. A few have never seen beyond the physical equipment and have missed the true value of N. N. C. and have either not stayed long or have been unhappy while they remained. We hope that each one of you will find that that will build your own character, enlarge your vi-

The mud-holes are gone! A new asphalt drive and sidewalk have replaced the old worn out-mud-trail up to the administration building. The old road has been torn up and a new surface has been laid. A sidewalk has been constructed completely around the drive, connecting the Ad. building and the library to the front walk.

Other improvements also have been made. Another government building has been joined to the high school building and will house the elementary training school in the future, the building will be brick veneered and landscaped.

The men will notice a great change in the scenery around Chapman hall. The grounds have been terraced and a new lawn is now growing where once there was only the dark bare earth. The grass is tender yet, boys, so keep off.

Chapel services will be much more pleasant this year with the new interior decorating and venetian blinds. We do not expect to see any more wet spots on the ceiling because the Ad. building, along with several others, has been reroofed.

Hadley hall, the Speech hall, the Fine Arts building and the old college grammar school building have all had their faces lifted.

Each summer new improvements are made along with the regular upkeep of the campus. The students are requested to help in this project of beautifying and improving our campus by taking good care of it during the school year.

Studio Opens

Franklin Carr, college photographer, has announced that the campus studio will be open soon. Due to a series of unfortunate circumstances last year's pictures were not what they were expected to be. These mistakes have been corrected and this year first class pictures will be produced.

sion and challenge your aspirations through the spirit and atmosphere of N. N. C.

It is the desire of the administration that this shall be one of the best years in the history of the school and we invite you to join in making this slogan a reality.

Let's Take Stock

by

ALVIN H. KAUFFMAN

Every day the headlines illustrate dramatically the fact that we are living in a world of struggle, of confusion, of impending chaos. It is particularly fitting that at the start of another school year we take stock and ask ourselves where we, yes, each one of us, stand amid all the turmoil about us. The best way to answer this question seems to be by asking ourselves several other questions.

DIRECTION? Socrates said, "Know thyself." One phase of this knowledge includes a realization of the direction of our life. Since there are only two possible directions, the way we ought to go, and the way we ought not to go, it is extremely important we have a clear understanding of this fact. We may rest assured that any direction which is not toward God, His will, and His kingdom, is one which we ought not to travel.

DECISION? Knowing our direction is not enough, however. Each of us must exercise our God-given power of decision. Decision alone can change our direction from what it ought not to be to what it ought to be. Our world is reeling for lack of stalwart, God-directed decisions. Let us decide to make our lives what God wants from this moment forth.

DESTINATION? But for each of us, even after we have chosen God's will, there remains the most significant of all questions: "Where should I go?" As we put our "unknown bundle" on the altar and say our everlasting and soul-searching "Yes," only some of us will know just where our place of usefulness will be. The answer to this question will ultimately determine the impact we make upon the world. That is why it is so significant. There are two directions in which we can travel, but there is only one place which God has marked out where we can make our greatest contribution to His kingdom.

Let's take stock of ourselves. May God help each of us to say by the end of this year: "I know the direction in which I am going. It is the direction I ought to go since I have decided for God. My destination is the place where God wants me to be."

Tangent Living

By REV. JOHN E. RILEY

Tangent is "meeting a line or a surface at a point and then leaving without intersection." This is a geometric term, but it is used quite frequently in practical everyday living and inference to life and action. For example, we often say, "He went off on a tangent," by which we mean, "He started along a certain course of action, but soon forgot his original purpose or became confused in his thinking and struck off in another direction."

This editorial in the thirty-fifth year of N. N. C. and the fortieth year of the Church of the Nazarene is a plea for main line living and a warning against tangent living. It is not a plea for a slavish duplication of every little detail of the preaching and practice of forty years ago. There were superficial little details and idiosyncrasies back there. There were methods and techniques which were adapted to that stage of progress. Forty years of following a straight line certainly should have meant advancement, progress, development and the changes incident thereto.

But improvements upon the foundations of yesterday need not be, must not be, departure from the principles of yesterday. We do not want to touch the power line of yesterday's faith and then angle off from it; that is tangent living. We want to touch the power line of yesterday's faith, capture it, be captured by it, and then go on and on and on in the straight line of holy progress.

This year at N. N. C. we will not be guilty of tangent living. Even as we face intelligently the need of machinery improvement and the everchanging adjustments of college life, we will perpetuate the mighty driving principles of this "holiness" college and push on in a straight ascending line of holy living.

—John E. Riley.

THE LOWDOWN

The Crusader staff wishes to extend a hearty welcome to all the faculty and students. Some of you are returning to us from former years at N. N. C. while others are here for the first time. We hope that you will make yourselves at home and do your best to get acquainted with your fellow-students.

This year can be the best in our history if we are willing to make it so. By putting "first things first" we will be able to keep everything progressing smoothly. Remember at all times the college motto, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God" and everything else will fall into its proper place.

The Crusader is planning to do its best in making the coming year a successful one. We want this to be your paper; we invite each student to take an interest in our activities as well as the many others around the campus. If we will all cooperate this year will be a successful one.

PHILOSOPHERS TO MEET

A special program to introduce the activities of the Philosophy club to interested students will be held in Chapman hall recreation room Tuesday evening, September 24 at 8 o'clock.

One of the most important features of the evening will be the election of a new president of the organization, formerly held by Ken Sulston who was elected to the student body presidency in the spring. All regular members are requested to be present and all who are interested are welcome.

Introducing New Instructors

MRS. HOUSE

MR. TAYLOR

AUDREY SPURBECK

Eng., Comm., Hist. Depts. Add to Staff

Three new teachers have joined the faculty this year: Mrs. Georgena Hallman, Mrs. Dorothy House and Edward Taylor.

Mrs. Hallman, a Canadian, is to be an instructor in the commercial department.

Mrs. House will be an assistant instructor in the English department. An English major, she was graduated by N. N. C. last spring.

Mr. Taylor is to be the new history instructor. He was graduated by Bethany-Penial college and received his master's degree from Boston university last spring.

Music Department Enlarges Faculty

The music department has added five new teachers to the faculty of the school of music. They are Robert Hughes, Elva Meckling, Constantine Epp, Charles Ross and William Wilson.

Mr. Hughes is a graduate of the University of Toronto is an associate of Royal Conservatory of Music, Toronto, and from Trinity College, London, England, with a licentiate in composition and conducting. He has taught at the University of Toronto and Upper Canada College, Toronto, and this past year he was head of the department of music at Canadian Nazarene college, Red Deer, Alta., Canada. At N. N. C. Mr. Hughes is to teach band instruments and music theory.

Miss Elva Meckling will be teaching piano. She graduated from N. N. C. in 1947 and last year was an instructor at C. N. C.

Double E. Hill was a student at the Guildhall School of Music in London in 1946 and received his B. Mus. from N. N. C. last spring. He will be teaching music theory.

Mr. Epp will be teaching brass and woodwind instruments. He is coming to N. N. C. from Julliard School of Music, New York, where he taught oboe. He has played oboe with the Columbia Symphony and has been featured in various concerts in New York. He is also engaged by Boise Junior College and is director of the Boise Junior High choir and the Boise Senior High orchestra.

Mr. Ross, baritone, will be teaching private voice lessons. He is well known in the Boise valley for his outstanding solo perform-

Will Teach Art

Miss Audrey Spurbeck is one of the newest members of our art department staff. Having graduated from N. N. C. in 1946 she taught one year in the high school at Vale, Ore., and this past year has been working for an M. A. at the University of Washington. Miss Spurbeck will be teaching commercial art subjects.

R. J. HUGHES

ances with various choruses and choirs. He sang the baritone solos last spring in Bram's Requiem at Caldwell. He has also been featured in programs in California where he lived before coming to the Northwest. He was director of music at the Presbyterian church of Pomona, Calif., and at Los Angeles he was a member and soloist of the Ellis club. He sang the part of Christus in Bach's St. Matthew's Passion presented by the combined choirs of Redlands university and the Riverside Junior college. He is a student of John C. Wilcox, Harold Hurlbut, Helen Omeron, Pietro Cuinini, and Percy Rector Stevens.

Mr. Wilson will be teaching wind instruments. He has an A. B. degree from N. N. C. and a B. Mus. Ed. degree from Southern Oregon College of Education. He is a graduate of Conn Vocational School, Elkhart, Ind. He has done other graduate work at the McPhail School of Music at Minneapolis, Minn., and at the Colorado State Teacher's college at Greeley, Colo. In addition to his teaching here at N. N. C., he will also be teaching in the Boise public schools.

Nursing Notes

The "new" is news at Samaritan hospital school of nursing this month. With the coming of the class of 1951 on August 4, to begin their three years' training period, the endless cycle began all over again. This class is unique, being the first class at Samaritan to ever occupy rooms in a modern nurses' home, built especially for Samaritan nurses.

And speaking of things new, the nurses' home nearing completion across the street from the hospital on the corner of Dewey and Garland streets, is competing with the class of '51 for that spot called the limelight. It will house all the nurses of the three classes in training at present, rooms for classes, demonstration, laundry rooms, apartments for the house mother, supervisors and a chapel for worship and fellowship. Official dedication for this new home will be in the near future.

New staff members at Samaritan are Miss Mary Keller, science instructor, a graduate of Samaritan with the class of '47. Miss Gladys Hill, a former staff member until last year when she went back to Winnipeg, Canada, for advanced university work in nursing, has returned as clinical instructor.

Miss Rosalie Puckett, Vicksburg, Miss., has recently accepted a position as supervisor at the hospital.

Student, Faculty Reception, Sept. 24

The first formal event of the year will be the student-faculty reception which will be held on Friday, September 24, in the dining hall at 2 p. m.

This will afford an opportunity for the students to meet the faculty and faculty to welcome the students.

Fellows! Better start looking around for dates now.

may attend classes in which the regular Sunday school lesson is taught, or if you are interested in personal evangelism we have a class just suited to your need. It may be that you are interested in teaching. We have a complete department allocated to Christian service training.

Under our Christian service training classes are "Understanding Ourselves," a class that is ably headed by Coach Monte Lee. "Personal Religious Living" gives you a chance to delve into the mysteries of the things that you don't understand about your own personal experience. Then our "Visitation Evangelism" class, taught by the Rev. Dick Jackson, is going to help all that are interested in calling. Rev. Jackson has a world of experience to back up what he says and our church is now at the place where visitation is as important a phase of the church as is the preaching service. One and all are welcome to attend this class.

The officials of the Sunday school are the Rev. Roy F. Ray, director of religious education, and the Rev. John E. Riley, pastor of college church. They are interested in having you attend Sunday school regularly and extend a hearty welcome to you to attend the College Church Sunday school. "It likes you, you like it."

REGISTRATION

At closing time Monday 436 students had registered in the college department and 114 in the high school department. Registration is being carried on full speed again today.

College High News

H.S. Adds Teachers

The College High School is to have two new teachers this fall. Prof. James Hilliard of Anderson, Ind., will teach physics, geometry, and English. Mr. Hilliard graduated from Bethany-Penial College, Bethny, Okla., and taught at Yorktown, Ind. He has also pastored for 11 years on the Northeast Indiana district.

Prof. Robert Hughes, a member of the N. N. C. music department, will be in charge of the high school music this coming year.

PROF. JAMES HILLIARD

High School Building Gets Remodeling

The College High is rapidly coming into its own with its new building improvements. Besides having three rooms for the grade school, there is a new room for a library-study hall, and an extra classroom. A new high school office and principal's office have also been built.

Grammar School Reports 80 Students

The grammar school opened last week with a record enrollment of 80 students. Prof. D. G. Laughlin, principal of the grammar school and college high, said that the beginning enrollment was approximately 10 students over last year's enrollment.

Teachers for this year in the grammar school are: Mrs. Matilda Laughlin, Mrs. Allene Blackwell and Miss Margaret Spry.

Piano Symphony Features Mrs. Swann

Alline Swann, dean of the school of music, was the featured soloist Monday evening in the Idaho eight-piano symphony at Central auditorium. The group was under the direction of Fern Nolté Davidson, and the program is a biennial event.

Mrs. Swann played the last movement of the Rachmaninoff C Minor Concerto. Orchestral accompaniment was supplied by two pianos. Elaine Carlson, also a teacher in the school of music, was one of the pianists who participated in the program. The grand finale of the program was a Russian overture in which 16 pianos and 32 pianists, were featured.

Art Department Revises Fee System

A new system is to be installed in the art department this year. There will be no art fees above the regular tuition, but each student will furnish his own equipment. This is to enable more students to take art courses.

Individual lockers are being installed in which the students are to keep their supplies.

Prof. A. J. Finkbeiner said that the night art classes will be continued this year for those who are unable to take the classes during the day and for any outsiders who wish to take art courses. Only the most popular courses will be offered in the evenings.

S. S. Reports

By TOM KELLY

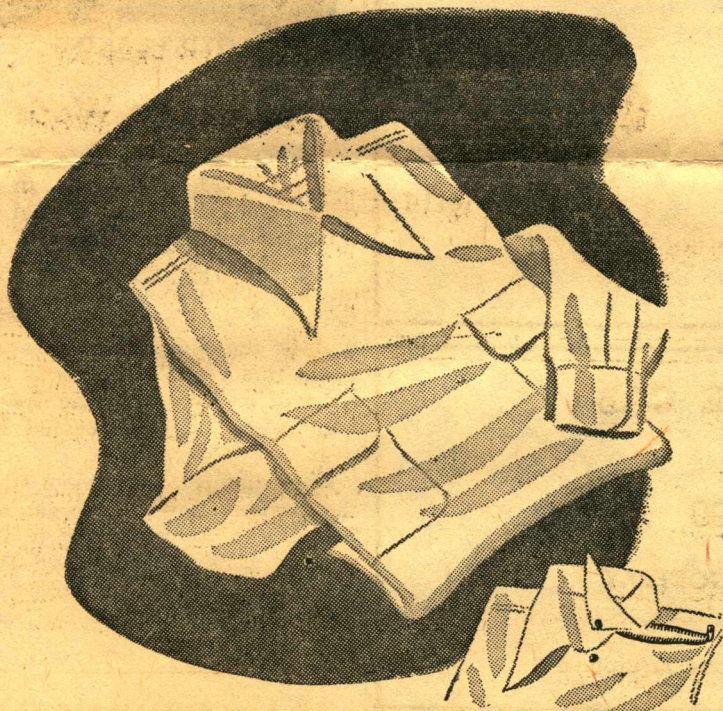

"Welcome to College Church" are the first words that you see when you walk into the chapel at N. N. C. May we add our greeting to this and say "Welcome to College Church Sunday School."

You have come from cities and towns scattered throughout the country and many things that you see are strange and new, but the Sunday school here is just the same as the one you left and the same Jesus Christ is taught as in your Sunday school at home. At the Sunday school here you will meet others that are here for the first time. Become acquainted with them, after all, "A friendly Sunday school is a growing Sunday school."

Because of the variety of classes here in our Sunday school, you

"N" Club Takes On Project for Semester

The "N" club has several projects on its calendar this semester. The chief project is to construct two tennis courts behind Morrison hall. They are hoping to encourage tennis and restore N. N. C. to its rightful place in the tennis world. Everyone is invited to help on this project.

Intra-mural Program Gets Under Way

Student directors for the intra-mural program this year are Douglas Powers and Mildred Becker, who is the girls' physical education director this year.

The intra-mural sports program is being enlarged and a special drive will be made to encourage greater participation by students.

- The fall sports are:
- Softball.
  - Football.
  - Tennis.
  - Basketball.
  - Shuffleboard.
  - Horseshoes.
  - Volleyball.
  - Archery.
  - Golf.
  - Ping Pong.

A. D. P.'s Favored

It has been predicted by a campus authority that the A. D. P.'s will take the boys' intra-mural sports. No prediction could be made on the girls' athletics, except that it will be a "toss up." No one but the other societies can change this situation, so everyone enter into your society program. This year we want every student to participate in some sport.

Profs. Exercise

The faculty men are planning a class one night a week for physical exercise. This sports program is to help the profs keep that "new look." They will have to get in shape for the student-faculty basketball game next winter.

Lee Reports B. B. Prospects Good

Coach Lamont Lee is encouraged by the prospects for basketball this year. All of last year's lettermen, except Ronald Weatherford will be back on the team. Fred Fowler is captain of the team this year.

C. H. S. Adds 6-Man Football to Program

Six-man football will be added to the college high sports program this year. Elmore Vail, the C. H.

MRS. FRED

S. coach, reported that the major sports activities of the high school this year are six-man football, basketball, and baseball. Coach Vail is expecting a good basketball team again this year.

Plans Made For New Home Ec. Dept.

Mrs. Fred, home economics instructor, took graduate work in home economics at the University of Idaho.

Under careful supervision of planning, a group of experts carried on a project for revision of the grammar school for a home economics department. The final plans were displayed at the University of Idaho and at the State Home Economics convention in Sun Valley.

The remodelling of the building will start as soon as possible and should be ready for use by September, 1949.

Dr. Simon Williams of the Lowell Textile Institute in Massachusetts, conducted a textile course and institute as an experiment. Among other textiles all the new synthetics were studied, including fabrics from peanuts, beans and feathers.

FLOYD PERKINS

Oasis Begins Work

The Oasis this year is to be headed by Floyd Perkins. In order to publish a good annual we must have the cooperation of every student. One of the first items on the schedule will be picture taking. Franklin Carr, of Boise, will be the campus photographer again this year. The campus studio will be located in the Speech hall, where it was located last year.

Immediately after school starts the Oasis staff will be organized. Those who are interested in this type of work contact Floyd Perkins. Floyd will be presenting his plans for portraits and staff at a future date.

You have probably noticed the little white cards that we passed out in registration. These cards are not just to make your registration more complicated, but are for a definite purpose. The Crusader is working on a project that will involve every student. We are not ready as yet to announce what our plan is, but when it is ready it will be announced to the student body. If anyone has not received a card to fill out, please go to the registrar's office and obtain one. Thank you.

There is a stillness in the Christian's life;
The corn of wheat must fall into the ground
And die, then if it die, out of that death
Life, fullest life, will blessedly abound.

It is a mystery no words can tell,
But known to those who in this stillness rest;
Something divinely incomprehensible:
That for my nothingness, I get God's best!
