Manley, Michel, Kern, Back Are Chosen To Head Societies for Second Semester

Ed Manley, ADP; Joe Michel, LSP; Stan Kern, SLA and Len Back, Oly, were chosen to head their societies for the next semester.

Further results of the ADP election show Wayne Larson as vice president; Gladys Fred, secretary; Merritt McKay, treasurer; Betty Bradford, girls' athletic director; Jim Harris, boys' athletic director; Lydia Angier and Bruce Larson, hostess and host; and Don Morgan, Merv Gale, Al Solts and Clarence Kinzler, cheer leaders.

Wendell Poole was named vice president for the LSP society and Eleanor Horne, secretary; Gordon Renschler, treasurer; Ardis Manley, program chairman, and Shirley Schulz and Harold Weber, girls' and boys' athletic directors, respectively.

Vice president of the SLAs is Lyle Starkey with Norma Dell Smith, secretary; Mary Lou Oldenkamp, treasurer; Howard Smith, program chairman; Glenn Knapp, chaplain and Clarice Harmon and Wayne Aller, girls' and boys' athletic directors.

Max Urwin will serve as vice president of the Oly society. Pearl Wilcox was named secretary and Myron Finkbeiner, treasurer. Chaplain is Paul Anderson and yell leaders are Gary Finkbeiner, Joan Embury and Howard Arnold. Girls' and boys' athletic directors are Sally Cole and Harold Stickney.

Free Chest X-rays Given 428 Student, Faculty Members

Sam Scammon, chairman of the Northwest Nazarene College Mobile TB X-ray unit, announced that 428 students and faculty members went through the unit for their free chest X-ray on Jan. 6 and 7, the days the unit was on the campus.

Considering the fact that many of the students had taken Manito skin tests at the beginning of the year and that those of the Academy under 15 years of age were not allowed to have the X-ray, this was considered a good percentage.

A Glance With Les At World Events

By Les Chambers

The death of Premier Joseph Stalin has ushered into the spotlight of the world a nation challenging the Soviet Union for Red leadership. This nation, China, was fostered and nurtured by the Soviet Union who has furnished not only the doctrine but also the machinery and weapons which are indispensable for world leadership.

Hatred of America, and participation in the Korean war, began to transform an agricultural country into a major industrial power, turn the world's biggest rabble in uniform into the world's largest fighting army, smash the family system, and start to transform the intensely individualistic Chinese character into the faceless image of authoritarianism.

China Threatens War

Along with these dynamic developments China's rulers have forged a foreign policy that menaces practically every one of their neighbors. The chief threats of war in the future now lie along the sprawling frontier of China; that is, Korea, Indo-China, Formosa, India and Japan.

Is Communist leadership passing to China? Measured by events, there seems little doubt that Peking, rather than Moscow, is carrying the ball in the Far East. Most Western diplomats are convinced that the Russians and Chinese held serious discussions during November as to their respective roles. They agreed that Moscow was to call the tune in Europe—and Peking in Asia. And Asia, rather than Europe, now appears to be in the forefront of Communist strategy.

Let's Woo Mao

In the opinion of some experts, attempting to woo Mao from Malenkov, to become an Asian Tito, is putting the cart before the horse. A more promising policy might be to try to woo Malenkov from Mao. For despite his Communist training Mao remains Chinese and must reflect the basic prejudices of his people. That means he is anti-foreign and anti-Russian at heart. And Malenkov and the Soviet army that now maintains him in power are well aware that some day in the future China could turn on them—a Frankenstein monster on a global scale.

Campus Etchings

By Ellwood R. Tame

Acting Dean of Students
Scene: The Business Office.

A long barrier made from the old pine tree—the staccato of business machines operated by the office girls on one side—a line of paying customers on the other side.

Money. It goes from the customers across the barrier, is calculated and recorded by the machines and "something" is returned. What is that "something?" Money for what?

At the grocery store the exchange is money for containers of food. At the department store the money is exchanged perhaps for the protection of clothing or the decoration of the body. At the service station money is traded for gas and oil products with the hope that they will keep us mobile.

In a short time many of you will be lined up along that long barrier. When you pay your tuition and fees you won't carry much in material value away. Just a small piece of paper marked "paid." However, you will carry away "Something" most interesting and challenging. Opportunity! Nothing more! Nothing promised! Just an opportunity.

At times students have the weird notion that learning is something one can buy and carry away, that education is something that is guaranteed when cash is passed across the barrier or that skills are wrapped in neat packages each with its own price tag.

Money exchanged for opportunity. What the money buys for you depends on what you do with the chances that are offered. For some it buys nothing, for some it buys an average return but for some it buys wealth beyond measure.

Rev. Ponder Gilliland Is Named Special Speaker; Paul Skiles Will Direct Music

Rev. Ponder Gilliland, superintendent of San Antonio district and general president of Nazarene Young People's Society, will be the evangelist for the Youth Week Revival to be held Monday, Jan. 25 through Friday, Jan. 29.

The services, sponsored by the five Nampa Nazarene Young People's Societies, will be conducted in College church.

Rev. Gilliland attended Pasadena College where he made an outstanding name for himself in debate and forensics. He was the most prolific winner of awards in debating, oratory, and extemporaneous speaking in the history of the college.

Prior to his election as district superintendent, Rev. Gilliland pastored churches on the Northern California district and First Church in Calgary, Alberta, Can.

Outstanding in the Lamplighter league, Rev. Gilliland was one of the founders. He specializes in personal evangelism.

Skiles Directs Music

In charge of the music will be

Mr. Paul Skiles, a layman who is now serving as youth director on the Northern California district. Mr. Skiles is also a graduate of Pasadena where he was outstanding in music and athletics.

He is probably known as the finest trombonist in the Nazarene movement. While in the Navy during the war he was a member of the band.

After his period in the service, Mr. Skiles took the position of minister of youth in the Bakersfield, Calif., First Church. Since then he has filled the same capacity in the Eureka and Santa Ana, California churches.

The famed trombonist will be featured at the College Church services on Jan. 31.

Revival Chairmen Named

Committee chairmen in charge of the revival include Harold Stickney and James Horine, advertising; George Stoops, prayer meetings; music and ushering, Jim Lais, and evangelism, Miss Elva Tombaugh and Clare Allee.

Riley, Stowe, Kelly Attend Board Meets, Evangelistic Conference in Kansas City

Dr. John E. Riley, president of the college; Rev. Eugene Stowe, pastor of College Church, and Tom Kelly, professor and director of Christian Education, attended meetings of the general board and the Evangelistic Conference in Kansas City last week.

During January of each year the general board meets to outline plans for the coming year. Dr. Riley attended the college presidents' annual meeting with the board of education. Rev. Stowe, regional NYPS representative, is a member of the policy-making group of the society.

Kelly's Thesis Used

Tom Kelly attended the conference of the directors of Christian Education, where a manual for local churches was formed. His Master's thesis, "An Investigation Into the Status of the Director of Christian Education in the Church of the Nazarene," was one of the courses used in the formulation of the manual.

The evangelistic conference, third of its kind, was held on Jan. 11-13. Some 400 of the leading Nazarene evangelists, plus some of the most talented singers and instrumentalists in the denomination, were present at the meeting. In addition to the evangelists, more than 1,000 pastors attended. The three-day conference was being sponsored jointly by the Seminary Department of Evangelism and the Board of General Superintendents.

Conference Was Inspirational

From the opening topic, "How to Get Ready for the Revival," to the closing address by General Superintendent Hardy C. Powers, the three day program was filled with inspiring talks, papers, discussions, and vocal and instrumental selections.

General Superintendent Hugh C. Benner and Evangelist Dr. Russell V. DeLong were in charge of the program. More than sixty evangelists, pastors, and district and general superintendents took part.

Among the major messages were those by Dr. L. T. Corlett, who spoke on "The Seminary and Evangelism," "Casting the Net," by Dr. Jarrette Aycock, and others by Dr. Howard Sweeten, Dr. U. E. Harding, Rev. R. T. Williams, Jr., Rev. R. Newman Raycroft, Rev. Helen Mooshin and the general superintendents.

"An Oasis in the Desert"

By Tom Kelly

The term, "An Oasis in the Desert," has been used many times to describe that activity known as Prayer and Fasting, which takes place every Thursday afternoon in the College Chapel.

Recently one of our chapel speakers made a statement to the effect that "those men who are out on the far-flung mission fields, as well as those who are in places of responsibility, have often mentioned how they have looked back upon their experiences while at NNC, and those who remain the longest are the ones that have to do with Prayer and Fasting."

A Trade With God

But let's hear from those who are active in this group today—members of the student body, faculty, and administration. One young lady states, "It seems to me that when you make a trade with God, in this case a trade of nourishment for the soul instead of the body, God gives you such a good trade that it can not be equalled or compared. Many times just a closer walk with God, especially when we are busy, will be a great blessing. I think that if you will sacrifice a little time to God, especially when you need the time to do something else, He will reward you greatly for it."

A young man, one who testifies regularly, says, "I feel privileged to come to Prayer and Fasting where I may offer up my prayers to God together with other people of God. Where I may come to unburden my own troubles—as well as to pray for the needs of others."

Faculty Member Is Grateful

A member of the faculty, in reminiscing, reminds us that, "It was many times in the old days that most of the student body and faculty members gathered around this altar and prayed that God would answer some special need—and God heard and answered Prayer."

"It warms my heart to know that from this group prayers go up to Almighty God, for those who in past years have attended Prayer and Fasting and know the power of this group in attaining a willing ear from God," testifies a member of the administration.

Are you seeking satisfaction for your own soul? Do you wish to help others? Does your faith run dry before the end of the week? Prayer and Fasting will help in your answers to these and other questions.

Cupid Has Field Day During Recent Holiday Season

Many victories were scored among students during the vacation period by that little fellow named Cupid.

Three couples that are now living cheaper are Max Urwin and LaVeta Cantrel, Ron Beech and Neva Templeman and Howard Slemmer and Helen McBride.

Among those announcing engagements are Joyce Thun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul S. Thun of Cottage Grove, Ore., to Bob Shafto, son of Mrs. John Hastings of Kinzua, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Campbell of Everett, Wash., also announce the engagement of their daughter Barbara, to Ralph Davis, son of Ray S. Davis of Toranto, Ohio.

The betrothal of Glenna Ball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Ball of Yakima, Wash., to Jack McEvoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McEvoy of Walla Walla, was also announced.

Rev. and Mrs. W. C. McKay of Ione, Ore., announce the engagement of their daughter Floradell, to Donald Moritz of Nampa. The engagement of a former student, Hansine Arneson of Velva, N. Dak., to Don Runyon, son of Mrs. Helen Runyon of Richmond, Ind., was announced by her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Good.

Following the vacation, Bernice Bradfield, daughter of Mrs. Blanche Bradfield of Salt Lake City, Utah, became engaged to Pvt. Bob Willard, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Willard of Hewitt, Minn. Bob, a former student who is visiting at the present at NNC, is stationed at Fort Leonardwood, Mo.

When you begin feeling as if you and God aren't as close together as formerly, make no mistake as to which one has moved away.

... EDITORIAL ...

If You Can't Say Something Nice About Someone — Don't Say Anything At All

Spreading rumors is one of the most malicious practices in which one can participate, and often the offender is completely unconscious of the offense. On a college campus, and especially in the dormitory, we live so close to each other that it is possible to feel that we have a right to know and to repeat every remark that is being made.

Some feel that it is only natural to be curious about the other person's business, but I feel that this curiosity is a developed one. It is not natural at all, but the result of environment. Then some feel that they should know every little thing that is happening to their neighbor. Of course, we are all good friends and are anxious to know the news about our friends, but the news that we pass on should not be detrimental to the good name of another.

A Starter Or a Spreader

But I am concerned about another type of people. They are the ones who never would think of starting a rumor, but who seem to like to pass on the ones they hear. I wonder if they are not as guilty of wrongdoing as the person who starts a rumor! I think that there are several reasons why people repeat a rumor. First of all there is the person who wants to let people know how much he knows about a situation and therefore feels compelled to tell everything that he has heard. Then there are the "jam" sessions where the conversation turns to personal opinions of different people, and then it is very easy to say what one has heard. Or maybe in meeting a good friend in the hall, one passes on some "choice" item he has just heard, regardless of how injurious to the individual.

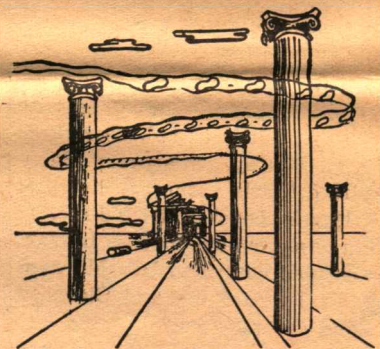

Right now there seem to be a lot of rumors going around that are damaging to the reputations of some very fine people. Have you repeated even one of these rumors? Can you feel that you are not guilty even though you just told what you heard?

What is the busiest corner of the campus in these closing days of the semester? The Librarians' corner, or rather the circulation desk. Hundreds of books and magazines crossed the desk as harried students searched and researched for material for term papers and final examinations.

Our observation or conclusion from this side of the desk is that teachers are demanding a high standard of accomplishment, and that students are trying seriously to fulfill faculty demands. If library circulation has a correlation with scholarship, we are happy to have been unusually busy.

Between semesters, our advice is to relax with some lighter reading than is required for term papers. Watch the bulletin boards in the library for reading suggestions. Ask to see the new books, or old favorites.

Trojan Tip Off Set For Tomorrow Night; College Coronation Will Be Held Jan. 23

Varsity Will Tangle With EOC Team

One of the highlights of the basketball season is the annual College Tip-Off which occurs this year on Jan. 23. At this time NNC will host one of the better ball clubs in the area, that of Eastern Oregon College of Education.

The coronation ceremony will be held prior to the varsity game. This year, instead of identifying the queen by a bouquet of roses, she will be given an orchid corsage. Her attendants will receive red rose corsages. They will receive their corsages after being escorted through an honor guard to the platform where they will remain throughout the game.

Candidates for queen (see last issue of CRUSADER for pictures) are Lois Tracy of LaGrande, Ore.; Floradell McKay of Ione, Ore.; and Betty Bradford of Halfway, Ore. Lower class princesses are Lois Cramer of Nampa and Joan Embury of Vancouver, B. C.

A Tip-Off banquet, under the direction of Gamma Nu Gamma and the N club, will be served following the game.

High School Squads Meet Greenleaf In Three Tough Tilts

Taking the floor for the College High School Trojans against Greenleaf tomorrow night in the annual Tip-Off game will be Wesche, Roger Johnson, Ronnie Kratzer, Don Constable and Phil Fonger. To date the team has a four-four record and will seek victory for the royal court, at tomorrow's game.

Candidates for the Tip-Off queen, whose name will not be revealed until game time, are Betty June Coffman of Harrold, S. Dak.; Joyce Conrath of Nampa and Carol Brittain of Los Angeles, Calif. Lower class princesses are Carol Russell and Beverly Gustin, both of Nampa.

Don Doane, Ray Ax, Ron Turner, Gary Finkbeiner and Don Constable have been selected to escort the royal party. The honor guard, which for the first time will consist of both boys and girls, will be made up of Barbara Peterson, Barbara Urwin, Dorothy Scholten, Joyce Kellom, Janet Paulson, Sidney Lewis, Pearl Tromburg, Ronnie Kratzer, Curt Zimmerman, Earl Tromburg, Dale Fleming, Richard Ness, Bud Wheeler and Roger Johnson.

In the first game of the evening, the junior varsities of the schools will battle. This will be followed by a CHS girls vs. Greenleaf girls game. The crowning of the queen will precede the main game.

NNC Crusaders Win BJC Invitational By Upsetting Airmen and Broncos

NNC Crusaders won the BJC Invitational tournament at Boise, Dec. 29-30, by defeating Mountain Home Air Force Base in the opener and the host team on the final night.

In the first game the local boys took an early jump and led 15-12 at the end of the first quarter. The next stanza went fairly even with the Air Force cutting down the Crusader lead by one point to take their rest at the half on the short end of a 34-32 count. NNC played their usual dangerous third quarter and saw the Flyboys sneak up to within one point of their 53 tallies when the bell stopped that round. Then the NNC lads saw the way and ended the game going away with a 76-68 victory.

Whip Broncos 83-79

The Crusaders found it a bit tougher the next evening when they came up against the Broncos and had to fight till the last second for their slim 83-79 win. BJC led the ball game at the half 39-34 and still remained in control at the third quarter. With just seconds to go Myron Finkbeiner was fouled with the game tied up and it more or less perturbed Coach Blakely and he promptly displayed his displeasure by throwing a towel at the official which drew a technical foul on top of Fink's two gift tosses. Myron missed one, made two and took the ball out of bounds. On a smart pass into Cantonwine to Dean who caged a lay-up, the buzzer sounded and the game ended 83-79.

Season Box Scores

Name	fg	ft	pf	tp
Dean	62	64	40	188
Reisch	53	37	40	143
Cantonwine	45	18	38	108
Bynum	59	10	45	128
Finkbeiner	71	72	48	214
Weber	36	13	21	85
Stickney	17	11	23	45
Doane	19	8	20	46
Kinzler	3	1	11	7
Dahlquist	7	4	9	18

The varsity record as of now stands at nine wins and five losses which is a bit better than previous seasons at this time of the year. If the boys continue as they have been playing it will be about the best year around NNC in many a moon and everyone should get out to the games and support the team and buy those good-looking basketball souvenir books put out by the athletic department.

For those who haven't noticed, there's been a big shuffle in the line up since everyone went home to open their Christmas presents. Mickey Dean has moved to the pivot position where he is doing a bang-up job and has piled up 98 points in the last five games for a healthy 20-point game average. Harold Weber has moved in the forward spot vacated by Mick and has racked up 44 points in four games for a strong 11-point game average.

The game with Mountain Home last Saturday night set somewhat of a record for the season with six of the eight boys scoring hitting the double figure digits. Also the final score of 94 is high for the season and probably for several seasons.

Don't forget the most important things you can do this week are have your chest X-rayed and buy a basketball book.

Olys Hand ADPs 53-34 Defeat; Cinch Championship Title

With the season not yet completed, the mighty Olys, with five wins to their credit, have cinched the first semester basketball championship in men's intramural sports. Second place is not yet decided, with the ADPs and SLAs battling for that position.

The Olys championship-cinching game was a 53-34 win over the ADPs, as Len Back led the way with 15 counters. In other games since the last publication, the LSPs upset the SLAs, 57-37, as big Gordy Renschler provided the spark with 15 points. The Olys stopped their closest rivals, the ADPs, with a 60-44 victory. Although short of some of their regular starters, the Olys again came through, this time whipping the LSPs, 57-40. Then came the game that cinched it, the Olys' 52-34 win over the ADPs, after which the SLAs evened things with the LSPs, beating them 53-30.

Though the Olys have won the title, the battle for second place will go on. The SLAs need to win only one of their two remaining games to take second, but their opponents will be the Olys and ADPs. The ADPs can take second if they beat the SLAs and the LSPs.

Ex-Varsity Men Named To Society All-Star Roster

All-star intramural cage team:
 R. F. .... Jim Gilson, LSP
 L. F. .... Len Back, Oly
 C ..... Skip Wilcox, Oly
 R. G. .... Merv Gale, ADP
 L. G. .... Paul Anderson, Oly
 G. .... Wayne Aller, SLA

This year's intramural all-star team has a very decided slant toward former varsity material. All six players have had varsity experience. Six are used because it was felt that to try to eliminate one of the six would be nigh to the impossible. Judgment was based on playing performance in games and available talent.

By way of explanation, it can be said that Gilson showed up pretty well in several games and so belongs on the team. Back, Wilcox, Gale, and Anderson most certainly belong, and Aller's performance makes him a definite choice. So it has been left up to the up-campus managers and coaches to figure out who they would start in such a situation.

SPORTS SLANTS

By Smitty

Since this is the last issue of the Crusader this semester, it might be a good idea to look back a bit over the sports picture and take an inventory of the term.

One of the best intramural softball programs on the NNC campus in a long time, got under way with the beginning of the school year and, as usual, new names and faces appeared on the scene. For those who have forgotten, that was about the time we predicted a SLA victory in the men's department. It wasn't the only mistake to come out of this column but it was the first and it has a sentimental value over the many other blunders we've made.

Powder - puff Miller pulled through again as he led the ADPs to the championship for the fourth consecutive time.

With the changing of the seasons came football and a lot of upsets. The Olys entered the season as favorites because of their past powerhouse teams which suffered one defeat in six years. This time they had to settle for a split with the SLAs with a record of four wins, two losses apiece. It was a fight to the finish between the Olys and the SLAs who played the last game.

King basketball came in around Thanksgiving time with the Olys pre-season favorites with the addition of several ex-varsity stars wearing the red and white this year. Also the ADPs picked up a bit of talent by way of the varsity and the LSPs and the SLAs were left to fight it out for the bottom rung of the ladder. Intramural basketball has been about the best ever this year with the help of these former stars but also a lot of regular society players have shown a lot of ability to make it one big season.

They say when a person starts looking back it's a sign of old age so that's about enough of this reminiscing.

LSP-ADP Girls Battle for Hoop Crown Tonight

Tied for first place in this semester's basketball with five wins and one loss, the ADP and LSP girls will be fighting to keep their top standing at tonight's 4:00 contest.

The ADPs lost to the LSPs in their second game but came back to upset the undefeated LSP team with an exciting 25-24 victory last Friday afternoon. The 5:00 game today between the SLAs and Olys will determine third and fourth places. At press time Tuesday the basketball standings were as follows:

	W	L
ADP	5	1
LSP	5	1
Oly	0	4
SLA	0	4

Newsweek Makes Extensive Survey Of Present Day Collegiate Morals

(ACP)—Early this month Newsweek magazine (Nov. 2) joined the ranks of those who have undertaken to "size up" the younger generation. After making "an intensive study of seven institutions of higher learning," Newsweek found the "campus kids of 1953" to be "unkiddable and unbeatable," but with "little urge . . . to set the world on fire."

The "morals and mores of today's collegians" were studied at the University of California at Los Angeles, Northwestern university, Georgia Institute of Technology, Georgetown university, Howard university, Princeton university and Vassar college. Here are some of the findings:

Today's college students were "shrewder, more mature than their grandfathers, more cautious than their fathers; they worked harder and were most likely to think things through."

Although on the whole they were better students than those of the '20s and '30s, Newsweek found today's generation to give "little thought to politics or international troubles." Generally, "they accepted McCarthyism, although a goodly number in all institutions questioned its methods." Students were "no longer misled into phony Communist-fronts as they were in the '30s"; they were "wary of anything with a Red tinge."

Students Are Religious

Today's students were religious ("Religion courses on most campuses were well-subscribed, and religious-emphasis weeks were a big hit"), and most of all wanted "to be contented, to have a home and a family, and to make a success of their chosen field."

"Sizing up the collegian of 1953," ended the report, "they might seem dull in comparison with their predecessors of less-troubled eras. But, though they wanted to conform, they were thoroughly and solidly American . . . Most of all they were young and wanted to make a million dollars. Some of them would. And you couldn't beat most of them anywhere else in the world."

Sarett Poems Given At Speech Meeting

Members of the Speech Club heard recordings of Lew Sarett, who read his own poems, in their meeting on Monday night.

The recordings were recently purchased, and it was the first time they had been played before the Speech Club.

The club's faculty adviser, Prof. M. A. Wilson, told of the speech tournament which will occur in a few weeks at Boise Junior College.

Rileys Entertain Faculty With Christmas Party

Members of the NNC faculty and their husbands and wives were entertained at a Christmas party by Dr. and Mrs. John E. Riley in their new presidential home Dec. 18.

A feature of the evening was a quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Harris, Miss Elaine Carlson and James Carkhuff, who sang various selections. The fun and fellowship was under the direction of Miss Dorothy Long and James Carkhuff.

At the close of the evening the 72 guests were served refreshments by Miss Ethel Allison and Mrs. Elmer Bittleston. The group presented the Rileys with a gift.

ADPs Take Top Honors In Annual Speech Contest

Preceding the Christmas holidays, finals were held in the annual Intramural Speech contest. Emerging as first place winner for the total contest were the ADPs.

First place in the Shakespearean division was taken by ADPs Noreen DeJong and Joe Keen; second place went to Olys Joan Embury and Wayne Bauder; third to SLAs Clarice Harmon and Howard Smith; and fourth to LSPs Ardis Manley and Gordon Renschler.

Placing in the poetry reading were Gary Finkbeiner, Oly; Clarice Harmon, SLA; Russ Miller, ADP, and Noreen DeJong, ADP, first through fourth respectively.

Ardis Manley, LSP, placed first in the humorous reading section with Lydia Angier, ADP, second and Marjorie Clay, LSP, third.

Taking first in dramatic readings was Gary Finkbeiner, Oly, with Betty Brown, ADP, second; Joe Michel, LSP, third and Clarice Harmon, SLA, fourth.

Dr. A. Aller Returns After Reserve Duty

Dr. A. R. Aller returned Dec. 18 after spending two weeks in Seattle in training duty with the Naval Reserve.

Dr. Maude Rice, a former instructor, filled in during his absence. She was a professor at N. N. C. for 12 years.

In order to keep in good standing, Lt. Com. Aller must take two weeks training each year. This year's course was in instructor training.

KROK Remodels Schedule, Staff

With the start of second semester, KROK plans to remodel its schedule by adding a few innovations. New programs are being planned to produce more student interest.

Not only the program schedule, but also the staff, will undergo a change so any student interested in being a member is urged to contact the station manager, Marvin Emrich, or his assistant, Marvin Brunson.

Several special RCA productions are to be presented in the future. The next dramatic production will be Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet.

The station will not be in operation during exam week, Jan. 17-22, according to the station manager.

Home Ec Members See Graduate Film

An interesting film on Home Economics graduates from Oregon State College was viewed by Home Ec club members at their regular meeting Monday evening.

In the business meeting which followed, under the direction of Doris Holmes, president, plans for the annual project were discussed. No definite project was named.
